Jérôme is an Associate-Barrister in the Corporate team where he covers all aspects of corporate & commercial law, including transactions, banking, financial services and employment. He advises and assists local and international clients on all aspects of corporate legal matters and is actively involved in the drafting of legal documentation and opinions.

Jérôme previously worked in the UK and internationally for 16 years in commercial client-facing roles in sectors spanning investment banking, media, management consulting, professional services and technology. He advised C-level executives and senior leaders on their corporate challenges, in areas such as finance, internal audit, people development, operations and transformation.

He has been exposed to multiple client sector dynamics, including retail, automotive, energy, transport, insurance, manufacturing, technology and pharmaceutical and is familiar with British and French business environments.

Jérôme brings to his legal practice a commercial mindset, business and financial acumen and an eye for customer and business outcomes in a multinational context. He thrives on solving novel legal challenges through innovative solutions.

Jérôme also has a keen interest in environmental law.
