

Rachel Nakalema

Junior Associate, S&L Advocates
rachel.nakalema@sladvocates.ug

Kampala

T +256 392 202 030

T +256 414 233 063

T +256 392 250 013

Rachel Nakalema's practice covers corporate and commercial advisory, transactions, banking, and financial services. Rachel advises local and multinational clients on transactional and regulatory matters including compliance, risk due diligence and corporate governance.

Related services

Corporate

Finance and Projects

Intellectual Property and Technology

Related sectors

Financial Services

Languages spoken

English

Experience

Experience has included advising:

- Two international development finance entities on their strategic minority equity investment in a continental digital finance company.
- A Dutch cooperative bank on the regulatory framework, market structure and investment viability for voluntary carbon credits trading in Uganda.
- The American Medical Association on the registrability of the Current Procedural Technology under the intellectual property laws of Uganda.
- A leading local agro-commodity company in relation to a structural reorganization and subsequent investment by a leading German chemical company.
- Standard Chartered Bank Uganda Limited on its due diligence procedures before lending operations and account opening.

Credentials

Education

- Post Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice, Law Development Centre (Bar Qualification) 2024
- Makerere University Kampala, LL.B. 2023