Ajibola Isaac Olaosebikan is an Associate in the Real Property Team of the firm, where he advises on a broad range of property-related matters. His practice covers real estate transactions, property acquisition and disposal, leasing and tenancy arrangements, property management issues, and land use and regulatory compliance.

Ajibola regularly acts for corporate entities, property developers, investors, and private clients, providing practical and commercially focused advice on both contentious and non-contentious real estate matters. He is experienced in drafting, reviewing, and negotiating property documentation, as well as advising on title investigations, perfection of interests, and compliance with applicable land and property laws.

He also supports clients in resolving property disputes and works closely with other practice groups to deliver integrated legal solutions where real estate issues intersect with litigation, corporate, or regulatory concerns.

Ajibola is known for his attention to detail, responsiveness, and commitment to delivering clear and effective legal advice tailored to his clients' objectives.
