Chilombo is Partner and Head of the Mining Department.

Chilombo's experience spans the breadth of mining advisory services, including: advising international companies on entry into the Zambian mining market, and the outright acquisition of local mines by way of equity or asset purchase, structuring joint venture agreements and conducting mining due diligence investigations, and ensuring overall regulatory compliance by mining houses with the local laws. Chilombo has a growing reputation for her keen understanding of the Zambian mining regulatory framework, and her practical approach to problem solving.

Chilombo also provides advice to a number of private equity funds and financial institutions in relation to multi million debt funding to local real estate projects and large public sector infrastructure development.
