

Rauna Ndilula

Director, Ellis Shilengudwa Inc.

rauna.ndilula@esi.dlapiperafrica.com

Windhoek

T +264 61 242 224

Rauna joined ESI in January 2017. She specialises in corporate and commercial law and regularly drafts, reviews and advises various commercial agreements including shareholders agreements, joint venture agreements, sale and lease agreements, loan agreements, settlement agreements and agreements for the provision of a variety of services.

Related services

Corporate

Finance and Projects

Languages spoken

Afrikaans, English, Oshiwambo

Experience

Her experience has included advising:

- On company law, banking, finance, project structuring and general commercial and corporate matters.
- On and preparing and submitting merger notifications to the Competition Commission of Namibia.
- Various private equity funds, with fund establishment, corporate governance and general fund management and operations.
- On and providing competition law opinions for clients in various sectors, such as advice on the structuring and notifiability of transactions.
- Clients on project and structured financing transactions, in various sectors.
- On and interpreting various commercial agreements; drafting settlement agreements, lease acknowledgement of debt and contract extension agreements.
- On and conducting and preparing due diligence investigations and reports for clients in various industries.
- Clients on board structures, corporate governance, policies and compliance with governing statute.
- On labour law (including initiating of disciplinary hearings) and litigation matters.
- On and acting as agent for the administration of deceased estates with the Master of the High Court.
- On winding-up and liquidation of companies and carrying out voluntary members liquidations of private companies.
- On and preparing trust deeds and setting up of trusts (inter vivos and testamentary trusts), including the provision of general trust law secretarial services.
- On and attending to debt collection matters in the Magistrates Court and High Court of Namibia.
- On general company secretarial work and work pertaining to their on-going corporate governance.

Credentials

Professional Qualifications

- University of Pretoria (South Africa): BCom (Law) Financial Accounting and Taxation (2014); LLB (2016)
- Admitted as legal practitioner in the High Court of Namibia (2018)

Recognitions

In 2021 and 2023, IFLR1000 awarded Rauna the Rising Star rating.

Membership

- Law Society of Namibia

Insights

Emerging Precedence on Reinstatement and/or Revival of Lapsed Agreements

13 March 2026

A reinstatement and amendment agreement properly characterised as a new agreement may serve as an effective mechanism to continue the contractual relationship under a lapsed agreement, on substantially the same or identical terms.