

Flávio Hemergim Salongue

Associate, ADCA

f.salongue@adca.dlapiperafrica.com

Luanda

T +244 926 612 525

Flávio Hemergim Salongue's practice focuses on corporate law and labor law, advising a wide range of clients.

Flávio mainly works on the constitution and alteration of companies, private investment as well as specific issues related to daily business.

He has also advised on labor law (contentious and non-contentious), contractual matters, mediation, resolution of labor disputes and social security.

Related services

Corporate

Litigation, Arbitration and Regulatory

Real Estate

Related sectors

Financial Services

Media, Sport and Entertainment

Real Estate

Languages spoken

Portuguese, English

Experience

Experience has included advising:

- As a team member, on the constitution of commercial companies and representative offices
- As a team member, on the monitoring and implementation of private investment projects
- As a team member, reparation of opinions on labor law and social security

Credentials

Professional Qualifications

- Admitted to the Angolan Bar Association

Education

- Catholic University of Angola, School of Law, Law Degree (2017)

Prior Experience

- 2020 to date, Associate, ADCA - Carvalho & Associados, DLA Piper Africa member firm in Angola
- 2019 to 2020, Trainee Lawyer, ADCA - Carvalho & Associados, DLA Piper Africa member firm in Angola
- 2018 to 2019, Trainee Lawyer, Luanda-based law firm
- 2014 to date, Volunteer (VUCAN – Catholic University volunteer)

Insights

Personal Data in Angola

11 October 2021

Personal data protection in Angola is regulated by Law No. 22/11 of 17 June 11, the Personal Data Protection Law (LPDP), which determines the legal rules applicable to the processing of personal data. Various regulatory obligations related to compliance with the LPDP provide for notification to the regulator, the Data Protection Agency (APD).