Obakeng is a Senior Associate in Minchin & Kelly (Botswana)'s Civil and Corporate Litigation Division, where he focuses on complex dispute resolution and strategic litigation advisory. Since joining the firm in May 2019, he has demonstrated exceptional analytical ability, discipline, and legal acumen – progressing from legal assistant to admission as an attorney in February 2020 after graduating third in his class.

Obakeng has developed a strong reputation for his meticulous preparation, persuasive advocacy, and commercially attuned litigation strategy. In addition to his litigation expertise, Obakeng is a qualified arbitrator with practical experience in arbitral proceedings. His dual perspective as both litigator and arbitrator enables him to approach disputes with strategic depth, procedural insight, and a results-oriented mindset.
