

Herman Campos

Associate, ADCA

h.campos@adca.dlapiperafrica.com

Luanda

T +244 926 612 525

Herman Campos has been providing legal and institutional advice, working in areas such as Corporate Law and Private Investment, Contract, Employment and Oil & Gas, combining strategic insight with the assurance of regulatory compliance and the protection of the interests of companies and institutions in highly regulated sectors.

Related services

Corporate

Employment

Litigation, Arbitration and Regulatory

Real Estate

Related sectors

Energy and Natural Resources

Industrials

Financial Services

Languages spoken

English, Portuguese

Experience

- Secondment in the Legal and Compliance Department of a multinational Energy company (Oil & Gas).
- Incorporation of companies and foreign investment projects, with emphasis on the energy sector.
- Advising on the drafting and negotiation of bilateral and multilateral agreements and treaties.
- Review of regulations and organic statutes of government entities.
- Corporate and employment due diligence for companies in the aviation and insurance sectors.

Credentials

- Lawyer admitted to the Angolan Bar Association.
- Law degree – Universidade Metodista de Angola.
- Master's candidate in Public Legal Sciences – Universidade Lusíada de Lisboa, with specialization in Public Procurement Law and Public International Law.