Government Gazette: online version and its benefits

9 mai 2022

In a significant initiative during COVID-19 period back in 2020, the Government Printing Department under the aegis of the Prime Minister's Office, had no other choice than to stop physical printing of Government Gazettes and introduce e-publishing of the Gazettes, putting an end to paper waste and the long wait for the dispatch of essential documents. In fact, with a simple click, subscribers had access to copies of such notifications on the official website of the Government Printing Department <https://gpd.govmu.org/Pages/Index.aspx> as soon as the documents were published.
